

Press Release

ITU Hosts Discussion On “Jinnah and the Case of the missing Constitution” Tomorrow

Lahore, May 24, 2018

The Information Technology University (ITU) the Punjab’s Centre of Governance and Policy is holding a panel discussion on Book "Muhammad Ali Jinnah and the Case of the missing Constitution" by Dr. Martin Wilhelm Lau on 25th May, Friday at 3pm on 6th floor, Lecture Theatre, Arfa Software Technology Park, Lahore.

Dr. Martin Wilhelm Lau is a household name in the field of South Asian History. After completing his undergraduate studies in South Asian History from the University of Heidelberg, Germany he joined LUMS. Dr Lau was a Professor in South Asian law and Deputy Head of Law School at the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS). He served as a Chair Of Law School and Director of the Centre of Islamic and Middle Eastern Law at SOAS from 1995-1998.

While working as a consultant for numerous legal assistance projects in Afghanistan, Somalia and Iran, Dr. Lau also served as a visiting faculty at Harvard School of law and Nagoya University side by side. Other major contributions involve his splendid work in the field of Islamic Law for LLB program for University of London.